

The seaside town of Porthcawl has lots to offer in terms of sport, relaxation, entertainment and fresh air. It's within easy reach of M4 Jct 37 and just half an hour from Cardiff, three hours from London, an hour and a half from Birmingham, an hour from Bristol. The Brecon Beacons and the Gower Peninsula are each just an hour away.

The town itself boasts lovely beaches. There's traditional bucket and spade or, for the more adventurous, the surfing at Rest Bay is UK renowned for its reef breaks, and point breaks as well as beach breaks.

Then there's golf, with the internationally acclaimed Royal Porthcawl. Cyclists can enjoy the cycle networks and scenic routes.

The shops are small, friendly and individual. Pubs and restaurants offer good, reasonably priced, food and a hearty Welsh welcome. There is an indoor activity at Trecco Bay Caravan Park. Culture has its place with the Silurian Art Gallery, a small museum, and a range of entertainment at the Grand Pavilion

We're David and Gaina Morgan we have been specialising in self-catering for the last ten years. We're carrying on an age-old family tradition of farming in the locality and enjoy welcoming people.

We like to create an atmosphere in which visitors can relax and shake off the stresses and strains of daily life.

2 Northways

Porthcawl, Bridgend

We offer at 2 Northways, Porthcawl, a four bedroom 'home from home' within easy reach of beaches, country parks, great walking, cycling, horse riding, golf, surfing, shopping, cinemas and lots of good, bracing, fresh air.

Our accommodation is ideal for extended families or groups of friends and any combination of ages and interests. It's just ten minute drive from M4 junction 37.

And as well as being close to the beach and stunning countryside, we're only minutes from the M4. It's just a five minute drive from Junction 37 on the M4 before you're at the door of your holiday home.

At Home

When you arrive at 2 Northways, you'll find it's just a five minute walk from the beach and the town centre. There are restaurants, pubs, shops, and lots of entertainment.

There's off road parking for two cars and an enclosed garden. The beds will be made up and the central heating on – unless you're fortunate enough to come in the middle of a heatwave! We can provide a welcome pack of basic essentials if you require

At Ease

An L shaped open plan kitchen, leads into a dining area and then into the television room. It's spacious and comfortable, with easy chairs and leather settees. A further, separate, dining room has a bed settee in it if you spill over from the main bedrooms. There's also a tele-video.

You've also got a downstairs cloakroom and washbasin. The patio doors lead from the dining room into an enclosed garden with table, chairs, and parasol. Relax!

At Night

There's plenty of room upstairs to accommodate extended families or groups of friends.

The four bedrooms include an ensuite master bedroom with a four poster bed, and a television.

There is a second main bedroom with a king size bed, and another television.

A third bedroom has two singles and a fourth has bunks.

There is also an upstairs bathroom, with an electric shower as well as the bath.
